Regis is a leading Catholic university in Greater Boston with undergraduate and graduate students in four schools: The award-winning Young School of Nursing, the Marshall M. Sloane School of Business and Communication, the School of Health Sciences, and the School of Arts and Sciences. Student-athletes compete on 20 NCAA Division III teams as part of the Pride Athletics program. Regis is a diverse and welcoming community rooted in the values and charm set forth in 1927 by its founders, the Sisters of St. Joseph of Boston. Regis boldly empowers women and men of all backgrounds to excel academically, become compassionate and informed leaders, and be a force for good in the world.
